

Annette Hong Kim

Annette is a Psychology student at McGill University where she is in charge of the student organization Mobilizing for Milton-Parc, a project that supporting unhoused people, and reconciliation with Indigenous communities. Annette is also part of "Orientations", a student newspaper that amplifies the voices of Asian students at McGill.

Annette is very involved in the community where she participates in the "Women of Comfort" project which raises awareness about women who are victims of the Japanese government policies; she serves as a volunteer and translator on the mental health committee of the Young Asian Health Professionals Association (YAHPA)**. Annette runs her own beauty studio, teaches French to Korean students, and enjoys spending time with her cats

2018-2019 Edition Second Prize winner Project : Les femmes sans-abri:dormir sous les étoiles.

See the video of her project