

Mary Eva

Field supervisor in the Faculty of Education, Department of Integrated Studies in Education (DISE), McGill University.

She has taught English Language Arts and Creative Writing at the secondary level and was English department coordinator for many years. Mary is on the board of directors of the Association of Teachers of English of Quebec (ATEQ).

As well she is on the board of directors of the Conseil pédagogique interdisciplinaire du Québec (CPIQ); she is an editor of the CPIQ journal "Apprendre et enseigner aujourd'hui".

Mary has a BA from McGill and a MSc English from New York State University.

She is committed to promoting and supporting literacy and education.