

NADIA RAMUNDO

Nadia Ramundo is an Independent Financial Services Advisor, a Certified Financial Planner - CFP® and a Responsible Investment Specialist- RIS®, offering financial services for over 30 years.

A committed social advocate for the last ten years, Nadia has been involved in the creation of supportive and empowering environment for women in our community, championing proudly women's issues and promoting financial literacy. She was president of the Carrefour des Femmes de Saint-Leonard, where she introduced online service delivery during the COVID-19 pandemic to combat social isolation. In 2017, she was Vice-President of the University Women's Club of Montreal (UWCM) and participated in the launching of the first north american edition of Olympes de la Parole School Competition. Nadia was also involved in promoting financial literacy in Canada through UWCM activities and on the board of ACEF de l'Est.

Nadia holds a degree in Psychology from is a McGill University.