

Voices of Olympia
Canada

SHUPENG LIU

Shupeng is a Health Science student at Marianopolis College. She graduated from Marymount Academy, where she collaborated with her teammates on the project “Using Technology to Optimize the Integration of International Students in Canada” and won fourth prize. She is involved in her school community, and she has participated actively in the leadership program and school band. She is proud to be a VOOC ambassador this year!